Is was a matter of cotimon remark among the passengers that the murderer who killed the man ou toe railway was probably on board of the Victoria, because of the coverant head winds and fedious royage they experienced, but no analytican for a moment restet on Matier. The room-mate of Muller states that he at our time as remarked to his commanion, and that he laughingly assented, as if ridicating the superstitute. Muller had no money with him at sill and was pur to various shifts formise small atums for extin expenses which he now and then incurred. On one occasion he offered fora wager to out for you make the consense which he was tried by a mock court marked. For wasting the sausage, and was sentenced to treat the commons with bottled porter. To man satisage, but failed in the endeavor. He was tried by a mock court match! for wasting the satisage, and was sentenced to treat the company with bettled porter. To pay for the parter he has to hy otherste two shirts, and there he subsequently redeemed with the proceeds of the sale of a spare coat he had with him. He accounted for his shortness of pecuniary supplies by telling speaks from the heart. He knows whereof he speaks. He has seete rebels in the field and knows what they are at home. It is almost knopesible to describe his speech. A reporter drops his pee, and soon finds histeril going up. The enthusiasm of the test andesnoe was tremendous. For two hours, the crowd stood in the bot sun anxious to each every word which fell from the speaker's lips. Gen. Uglesby is truly a western man, with a big powest heart, and intensible the speaker's lips. After Gen. Oglesby had concluded cloquent specures were made by Gen. Hen. Preatiss and Clark E. to be for peace, and uses the peace ory as a state of the states of the this wer. The party which is out constitutes two parties of the most opposite seriliments. One of them is more hostile to us than Lincoln's party. The other affects to be for peace, and uses the peace ory as a 'expon sgainet Lincoln.' If they combine at all, which is extremely constitut, it will be for the purpose of oxpelling the present
it cumbent (a very difficut job) and getting possession of the spoils, which are, beyond computation, enormous, and for no purpose of patriotism. Should they even succeed,
which we hold to be nigh skin to a miracle,
it is very doubtful whether we should have

NO BATTLE MAN NEED APPLY.

Secretary of Was or Commander of the srms, and we have no doubt that if his own professors were consulted, he would choose either of them, before the position of Frestdent, where all his duties would be so new and subarrassing.

In the mane of common sense, what do the segontlemen who are so instilly bashing for peace, want of a Secretary of War or a Commander of the arrow. nder of the army. STATE SEWS.

The two Beptist Societies at Galesburg ave united, and will build a large churcis. The people of Altons and Galens are building large and bandsome school houses. The Father of Waters has some to grief. A few days since A Bertschinger of Quincr waved the Mississippi, fat no point was the water above his acounders. The two sons of Mrs. Hooner, a widow lady living at Quincy, were poisoned a few days since by eating choose. They barely recovered. A great temperance revival is in progress at Oquawas.

General: Aster full consultation with the President, Scoretaries of State, War, &c., it has been decided to effect the operation project for the Ith. Arrangement have been made to have a government escames at Anapolis to receive the prisoners and eary them to their destination.

Some four or five of the chief men in the effair are to be arrested to-day. When they meet on the 17th por will please have everything prepared to arrest the whole party, and be sure that none escape.

It is understood that you will arrange with Gen. Dis and too: Sawad the modus open a dit has been intimated to me that the mesibing night take place on the 18th; please be prepared. I would be giad to have you advise me frequently of your arrangements in regard to this very important matter.

It is an excessingly earded ont, is will go far toward breaking the back-bone of the rebillion. It will probably be well to have a special train quietly prepared to take the prisoners to Amapolis.

I leave this exceedingly important affair to your tart and observation—the attended to the prisoners to Amapolis.
